FUNDING

Q: So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

A: Congress has proposed allocating $155 million to the NEA in FY 2019, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 40¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

Q: What about Arkansas—how much does state government budget to the Arkansas Arts Council on the Arts each year?

A: The state allocated $1,045,871 to the Arkansas Arts Council in FY 2018. In FY 2017, the Arkansas Arts Council also received $637,900 in federal NEA funds, which the Council re-granted to dozens of cultural organizations through the state. Another 8 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $917,400.

ARKANSAS ARTS FACTS

IN THE NATURAL STATE, THE ARTS UNITE US AS ARKANSANS

Crystal Bridges is the world’s premier art museum dedicated to American art. Attracting hundreds of thousands of visitors each year, the extraordinary artworks, collected by Walmart heiress Alice Walton, is housed in an architectural wonder designed by Moshe Safdie.

THE ARKANSAS ARTS COUNCIL was established in 1966, and it became an agency of the Department of Arkansas Heritage in 1975. The Arkansas Arts Council advances and empowers the arts by providing services and funding for programming that encourages and assists literary, performing and visual artists in achieving standards of professional excellence. The Arkansas Arts Council also provides technical and financial assistance to Arkansas arts organizations and other providers of cultural and educational programs. This statewide programming and assistance ultimately provides cultural, educational and economic opportunities for the benefit of all Arkansans.
