PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

Q So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?
A Congress has proposed allocating $155 million to the NEA in FY 2019, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 47¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

Q What about Rhode Island—how much does state government budget to the Rhode Island State Council (RISCA) on the Arts each year?
A The state allocated $2,290,068 to RISCA. In FY 2017, RISCA also received $718,700 in federal NEA funds, which the Council re-granted to dozens of cultural organizations throughout the state. An additional 11 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $993,700.

COMMUNITY MUSIC WORKS (CMW) supports free music educational and performance programs for at-risk children and youth. Activities include music instruction, a leadership development program, performance opportunities for students, and professional concerts by resident musicians.

THE RHODE ISLAND STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS (RISCA)—Established in 1967, RISCA is charged by the state legislature to stimulate public interest and participation in the arts and to serve as the liaison to the state arts community. Honoring its state mandate, RISCA expands the state’s cultural resources and the public’s participation in them; assesses the needs of the arts state-wide and makes recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly; provides opportunities in arts education; and protects freedom of artistic expression. > Learn more here.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!
• Start in Providence and visit the Providence Athenaeum. One of the oldest and most beautiful libraries in the country, the Athenaeum is known for its distinct, humanities-first programming: reading groups, great lectures, and a wonderful children’s library. Every summer, the city lights the Providence River on fire for Waterfire, an amazing art installation! Catch a theater performance at Trinity Repertory Company, RI’s professional theater company, which also has engaging educational programs for children, teens, and adults. And Don’t miss the RISD Museum, a fantastic, world-class museum of arts representing diverse cultures from ancient times to the present.
• The Gamm Theatre, in Warwick, has brand new facilities for its cutting-edge theater performances, lectures, classes, and workshops.
• In Cranston, the Park Theater presents popular music and performances of the State Ballet of Rhode Island.
• The Newport Art Museum offers 2,600 works of art. The collection concentrates on American and contemporary art, from the 18th century to the present. Newport also has many art galleries. Island Moving Company offers performances of contemporary ballet.
• In Pawtucket, visit Slater Mill, the birthplace of the industrial revolution in the U.S.
• In South County, the town of Charleston offers many art galleries, not far from beaches and marinas. And in nearby Wakefield, the Contemporary Theater Company has karaoke singing competitions and community theater.
