THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- The week-long Mokihana Festival on the island of Kaua‘i is a celebration of Hawaiian culture, including music and dance, including Hawaiian immersion school students competing musically with songs in the Hawaiian language.
- Native Hawaiians traditionally celebrated Makahiki, a four-month long season that began in mid-October and included athletic competitions, ceremonies dedicated to the deity Lono, celebrations of renewal and perpetuation of the life cycle with a prohibition on warfare. These cultural traditions and practices have continued with Ka Moloka‘i Makahiki, involving all of Molokai’s elementary schools, middle school and high school as well as many adults on the island. Joining in on the competition and festivities are schools from all over the state as well as members from the Coast Guard.
- The annual Queen Lili‘uokalani Keiki Hula Festival and Competition on O‘ahu honors Hawai‘i’s last reigning monarch with song and dance in three days of competition for students under the age of 12.
- On Maui, the Majama Wao Akua annual art exhibit of native species in Maui County brings together local conservation organizations, native plant vendors, Maui artists and artisans. Artists are invited to explore Maui’s watersheds and use their creative talents to raise awareness about the importance of protecting native species.
- Hawai‘i Island, also called the Big Island, is home to the Waimea Ocean Film Festival, an 8-day international film festival dedicated to bringing a greater understanding of the ocean environment and island culture. The Ukulele & Slack Key Guitar Festival includes an all-star lineup of musicians visiting schools and leading workshops and classes, reaching over a thousand students.
- Established as the premier international film event in the Pacific, the statewide annual Hawai‘i International Film Festival showcases features and documentaries from Asia, the Pacific Islands and Hawaii.
