PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

What about Louisiana—how much does state government budget to the Louisiana Division of the Arts each year?

In FY 2020, the state allocated $2,069,865 to the Louisiana Division of the Arts. The Louisiana Division of the Arts also received $1,520,000 in federal NEA funds which the Division re-granted to dozens of cultural organizations throughout the state. Another 49 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $1,520,000.

So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

Congress has proposed allocating $162.25 million to the NEA in FY 2020, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 49¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

IN THE BAYOU STATE, THE ARTS UNITE US

With some 400 different festivals each year featuring local music, arts and culture, it’s easy to see why Louisiana is often called the Festival Capital of America.

THE LOUISIANA DIVISION OF THE ARTS (LDOA)—The LDOA was established by the state legislature in 1977. A program of the Office of Cultural Development, the LDOA serves the citizens of Louisiana by acting as a catalyst to provide funding and support the advancement of the arts field while providing public access to Louisiana’s arts and culture. The Division also provides service and support to the arts and culture field in the areas of Arts-in-Education, State and Regional partnerships, Folklife, Individual Artists’ Services, Accessibility, and Organizational Support Services.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

• A visit to Louisiana is not complete without a stop in the Big Easy for one of New Orleans’ many music and arts festivals such as the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, Essence Festival, or to hear the shouts of “STELLA!” at the Tennessee Williams Literary Festival.

• From Festivals Acadiens et Créoles, Zydeco Extravaganza to Festival International de Louisiane, in Lafayette, you can take in the local culture and cultures from around the world all en français (in French).

• Residents and visitors are crawling all over Monroe and West Monroe with the Downtown Gallery Crawl featuring art galleries, live music, and award winning local culinary delights.

• STEAM up the Mississippi to our state capitol city of Baton Rouge, where fine art and science come together at the Louisiana Arts and Science Museum.

• In Shreveport, Elvis hasn’t left the building. Meet the King of Rock ‘n’ Roll at the Shreveport Municipal Auditorium, where the world was introduced to Elvis Presley through the Louisiana Hayride.

• In Arnaudville, the world is talking about Arnaudville and NUNU Arts and Culture Collective. The rural community has gone from neglected historic buildings to a community-wide revitalization effort and has become a hub of international cultural placemaking and a destination for travelers.
