PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

Congress has proposed allocating $162.25 million to the NEA in FY 2020, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 49¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

WHAT ABOUT MARYLAND—HOW MUCH DOES STATE GOVERNMENT BUDGET TO THE MARYLAND STATE ARTS COUNCIL EACH YEAR?

In FY 2020, the state allocated $23,408,764 to the Maryland State Arts Council. The Maryland State Arts Council also received $752,000 in federal NEA funds, which the Council re-granted to dozens of cultural organizations throughout the state. Another 59 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $3,208,900.

“Maryland is truly a destination for all artists and art lovers, and Governor Hogan and I could not be more proud to be a part of this journey.”
—Yumi Hogan, First Lady of Maryland

MARYLAND ARTS FACTS

IN THE OLD LINE STATE, THE ARTS UNITE US

At 81%, Marylanders overwhelmingly agree that “a vibrant arts community makes Maryland a better place to live,” according to a new statewide public opinion survey released by the Maryland State Arts Council.

MARYLAND STATE ARTS COUNCIL—
Established in 1967, the Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC) encourages and invests in the advancement of the arts for all Marylanders. Its grants and programs support artists and arts organizations in their pursuit of artistic excellence, ensure the accessibility of the arts to all citizens and promote statewide awareness of arts resources and opportunities. > Learn more here.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- An annual must-do in Baltimore is Artscape, the largest free arts festival in the country, featuring hundreds of artists and attracting over 350,000 people each year.
- With tons of working artists and charm to spare, it’s easy to see why Berlin on Maryland’s Eastern Shore is known as America’s Coolest Small Town.
- An artist’s haven in the Appalachians, Spruce Forest Artisan Village in Grantsville will take you back in time and fill you with inspiration.
- A sculpture made entirely of marshmallow PEEPs? Entries from the annual PEEP Show at the Carroll Art Center in Westminster are museum-worthy, and the annual event is a major revenue stream for the local arts council.
- Walk the halls of a gallery displaying the work of local African-American artists, listen to historic and contemporary music, and dive deep into African-American history and culture at the Howard County Center of African-American Culture in Columbia.
- Out west in Cumberland, enjoy the annual Delfest – a bluegrass and folk music festival, perfectly situated along the Potomac River in the Appalachian Mountains at the Allegany County Fairgrounds.
