IN NORTH CAROLINA, THE ARTS UNITE US
Research shows that students’ overall school performance increases in A+ Schools. With their arts-integrated curricula, A+ schools report improved attendance, fewer disciplinary problems, stronger teacher satisfaction and higher levels of community and parental involvement.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ARTS COUNCIL launched its work in 1967 as awareness of the importance of arts to all citizens was becoming a national movement. Our state’s arts infrastructure reaches into all 100 counties through one of the most highly developed and effective networks of local arts councils in our nation. An abundance of outstanding artists and arts organizations continues to enrich our communities. Artists and institutions improve quality of life, educate and inspire our youth, and stimulate an extraordinary amount of economic activity.
