THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- Starting in the Lehigh Valley, ArtsQuest’s Musikfest attracts approximately 1 million visitors to Bethlehem each year. Musikfest is the country’s largest free music festival.
- Head south to Chadds Ford and enjoy the art of the Wyeth family at the Brandywine River Museum. In addition to the Wyeth family’s work, the museum also houses a cross-section of American art with special focus on artists from the Brandywine Valley.
- Start a tour of Lancaster with a visit to the Ware Center, the city’s newest visual and performing arts center. It is located in the heart of the arts & historical district. Down the street is the Fulton Opera House, and located along Prince Street are arts galleries to appeal to everyone’s taste.
- Head up to State College to attend the Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts in July. The Festival assists the Nittany Valley Running Club in presenting the Sue Crowe Memorial Arts Festival Races, and Schlow Centre Region Library in presenting Bookfest.
- Head west to Ridgway and attend the annual Chainsaw Carvers Rendezvous. Over 60 carvers from around the nation participate in this experience. The 2019 event is scheduled for the end of April.
- The City of Sharon sits unassumingly in the Shenango Valley of Mercer County, nestled against Pennsylvania’s border with Ohio. But this quiet city is home to a unique arts festival—Waterfire Sharon! The festival incorporates the contributions of dozens of local galleries and works of art lining downtown Sharon. The family-friendly event offers an opportunity to walk the main streets of the city traffic-free in the glow of the river’s stunning display of fire.
