PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

Q So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

A Congress has proposed allocating $162.25 million to the NEA in FY 2020, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just $49 per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

Q What about South Dakota—how much does state government budget to the South Dakota Arts Council each year?

A In FY 2020, the state allocated $1,006,468 to the South Dakota Arts Council. The South Dakota Arts Council also received $793,200 in federal NEA funds, which the Council re-granted funds to dozens of cultural organizations throughout the state. An additional 9 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $287,500.

THE SOUTH DAKOTA ARTS COUNCIL—
Established in 1966 and funded by the State Legislature and the National Endowment for the Arts, the South Dakota Arts Council (SDAC) is a state agency serving South Dakotans and their communities through the arts. Recognizing the importance of creativity in the lives of all South Dakotans, the Council makes quality arts accessible throughout the state by providing grants, services and information to artists, arts organizations, schools and the public.
