THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- In 2018, Abilene became the official “Storybook Capitol of America.” It is home to the National Center for Children’s Illustrated Literature, the largest collection of Storybook Sculptures in the U.S., and the annual Children’s Art & Literacy Festival! The town’s Cultural District is a dynamic example of how the arts spark urban revitalization through restoring historic buildings, enhancing businesses, promoting cultural tourism, and increasing civic pride.
- With the second highest number of theatre seats in a concentrated downtown area in the U.S., Houston’s arts and culture scene is booming. From the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, to Project Row Houses, from the annual ArtCar Parade to free performances year-round at the Miller Outdoor Theater in Herman Park, from Discovery Green, to the newly rediscovered underground “Cistern”—art appears everywhere!
- Drawing from its rich Spanish and Mexican heritage, San Antonio draws visitors from around the world by showcasing historic, contemporary and educational work through its Luminaria Festival, the King William Historic District, Blue Star Contemporary Art, the San Antonio Museum of Art, artspace, SAY Sí, The Guadalupe Arts Center, the McNay Art Museum, three TCA Cultural Districts, Ruby City; and many more.
- It won’t be on your tourist map, but life changing creative work is being done at Texas’ Fort Hood through “Creative Forces”, the NEA Military Healing Arts Network, which serves the special needs of military patients, veterans with traumatic brain injury and psychological health conditions, as well as their families and caregivers.
- Austin Classical Guitar is the leading nonprofit arts organization dedicated to classical guitar in the U.S. With international reach through its extensive guitar curriculum, including a version in Braille, ACG serves as a model for other communities around the world aiming to inspire all of the people it serves with musical experiences of deep personal significance.
