PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

Congress has proposed allocating $162.25 million to the NEA in FY 2020, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 49¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

Q What about Vermont—how much does state government budget to the Vermont Council on the Arts each year?

The state allocated $723,589 to the Vermont Council on the Arts. In FY 2019-20, the Vermont Council on the Arts also received $724,300 in federal NEA funds, the Council re-granted to dozens of cultural organizations through the state. Another 21 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $387,000.

IN THE GREEN MOUNTAIN STATE, THE ARTS UNITE US

In the small town of Bethel, an innovative project brought together the local government, businesses, and members of the community to revitalize the neglected downtown through pop-up art galleries, live music events, and a 200-foot long trout-themed mural created and installed with the help of more than 150 community members.

THE THE VERMONT ARTS COUNCIL—

The Vermont Arts Council envisions a Vermont where all people have access to the arts and creativity in their lives, education, and communities. Engagement with the arts transforms individuals, connects us more deeply to each other, energizes the economy, and sustains the vibrant cultural landscape that makes Vermont a great place to live. Since 1965, the Council has been the state’s primary provider of funding, advocacy, and information for the arts in Vermont. > Learn more here.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

• To fully experience the Northeast Kingdom start with Dog Mountain, home of the Stephen Huneck Gallery and 150 acres of dog-friendly grounds. Or, head to Bread and Puppet, one of the nation’s oldest self-supporting theater companies and a 140-year old hay barn that has been transformed into a museum with an exquisite collection.
• Burlington, Vermont’s “Queen City,” is both the largest city in the state and a hub of arts activities. On the Church Street pedestrian mall, visit Burlington City Arts and Frog Hollow, home to more than 200 Vermont artists and artisans. Or venture to the South End Arts District for a meandering collection of galleries and artist studios—and the site of the South End Art Hop each September.
• In the picturesque Mad River Valley, The Bundy Modern is positioned on a natural plateau with incredible views of the mountainside—the perfect backdrop for its showing of contemporary art. During August the entire valley celebrates the Vermont Festival of the Arts, with music, art exhibitions, and family-friendly events.
• In Middlebury, the college campus offers the Museum of Art and Mahaney Center for the Arts. Town Hall Theater offers theater, opera, films, and a gallery. It is also host to the August Middlebury New Filmmakers Festival.
• In Brattleboro, see a world-class jazz ensemble at the Vermont Jazz Center or a performance at the New England Center for Circus Arts. The Brattleboro Museum & Art Center offers contemporary art exhibits throughout the year and the historic Latchis Theater is the go-to place for a wide array of performing arts.
• A first stop in the Bennington area is The Bennington Museum, featuring the largest collection of paintings by American folk artist Grandma Moses.
