Nonprofit Art is a $166.3 Billion Driver of our National, State & Local Economy.

Massachusetts nonprofit and municipal cultural organizations report a staggering $483,519,270 in loss in revenue since March, 2020 while the Commonwealth’s working creatives: individual artists, teaching artists, and scientist/humanists have lost $20,138,858 in personal income due to the pandemic in Mass Cultural Council’s most recent COVID-19 impact survey for the cultural sector. Across Massachusetts, more than 30,000 cultural sector jobs have been impacted by COVID.

Nonprofit Art is a $2.3 Billion Driver of Just One of our Local Economies.

Public Investment in Grants to Nonprofit Arts Organizations & Artists

Q So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

A Congress allocated $167.5 million to the NEA in FY 2021, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 51¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the U.S. Treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita.

Q What about Massachusetts—how much does state government budget to the Mass Cultural Council each year?

A In FY 20-21, the state allocated $18,180,000 to Mass Cultural Council. The Mass Cultural Council also received $959,600 in federal NEA funds, which the Council re-granted to cultural organizations throughout the state. Another 151 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $6,144,708.

The public place-making project “Beyond Walls” in downtown Lynn brought together diverse communities including Puerto Rican, Cambodian, and Dominican residents while the project generated new economic activity.

THE MASS CULTURAL COUNCIL

works to elevate the rich cultural life in Massachusetts. The state arts agency partners with communities across the Commonwealth to expand access, improve education, promote diversity, and encourage excellence in the arts, humanities, and sciences. Through our efforts, arts and culture make our state a better place to live, work, and visit for everyone.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

• Recognizing the creative sector as an asset in economic development and community-building, the Commonwealth has established 45 cultural districts. The destinations below represent only a few of the Commonwealth’s cultural offerings.
• In western Massachusetts, see the famous illustrations of the Norman Rockwell Museum in Stockbridge, which is near many art galleries in Adams, Pittsfield, and Barrington. Novelist Edith Wharton’s former estate Hibernian Hall offers year-round programming that reflects the cultural heritage of the neighborhood.
• In nearby Amherst, along with the Mead Art Museum, and the UMass Fine Arts Center.
• Springfield is the birthplace of basketball and beloved children’s author Dr. Seuss. It is also the home to the Dr. Seuss National Memorial Sculpture Garden, Springfield Symphony Orchestra, CityStage, and the Community Music School.
• The Worcester Art Museum’s collection span 51 centuries of Art. The town has many colorful murals, the Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts, and the Worcester County Light Opera Company.
• In the heart of the Boston neighborhood, Roxbury, Hibernian Hall offers year-round programming that reflects the cultural heritage of the neighborhood.

ICA’s Watershed in East Boston is a seasonal exhibit space for contemporary art. During the pandemic, it became a food distribution site to address a direct need in the community. A national model of creative youth development, Artists for Humanity employs teens to make art for business clients. On Boston’s famed Avenue of the Arts, Symphony Hall is the venue for America’s favorite orchestra, the Boston Symphony.

• To the southeast, in New Bedford, the town’s namesake Symphony Orchestra is one of the oldest regional orchestras in the U.S. The former whaling center has a whaling museum, of course, and many art galleries, the Zeiteron Performing Arts Center, and Your Theater, Inc., a community theater group.
