LOSS OF REVENUE AND JOBS
(Commercial & Nonprofit Arts Organizations Combined)

Nationally, COVID-19 has devastated creative economy businesses with a loss of $150 billion in revenue. In addition, 52% of all creative workers became unemployed (2.7 million people) as of July 2020.

- $150B LOST REVENUE
- 52% OF UNEMPLOYMENT

ECONOMIC IMPACT OF NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & THEIR AUDIENCES

Nationally, the nonprofit arts industry alone generates $166.3 billion in economic activity annually that supports 4.6 million jobs and generates $27.5 billion in federal, state, and local government revenue.

- Spending by arts audiences generated $102.5 billion to local businesses.

PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN GRANTS TO NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS & ARTISTS

Q So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

A Congress allocated $167.5 million to the NEA in FY 2021, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 51¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the U.S. Treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!
The Arts Across Texas—adapting to the challenges of creating and presenting during a pandemic.

- In 2018, Abilene became the official “Storybook Capitol of America.” It is home to the National Center for Children's Illustrated Literature, the largest collection of Storybook Sculptures in the U.S., and the annual Children’s Art & Literary Festival! The town’s Cultural District is a dynamic example of how the arts spark urban revitalization through restoring historic buildings, enhancing businesses, promoting cultural tourism, and increasing civic pride.

- As the 4th largest city in the U.S., Houston has seven TCA Cultural Districts which reflect the diversity of the city and beyond. From the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, to Project Row Houses, from the annual Art Car Parade to free performances year-round at the Miller Outdoor Theater in Herman Park, from Discovery Green, to the rediscovered underground “Cistern”—art appears everywhere!

- Drawing from its rich Spanish and Mexican heritage, San Antonio draws visitors from around the world by showcasing historic, contemporary and educational work through its Luminaria Festival, the King William Historic District, Blue Star Contemporary Art, the San Antonio Museum of Art, artpace, SAY Si, The Guadalupe Arts Center, the McNay Art Museum, three TCA Cultural Districts, Ruby City, and many more.

- It won’t be on your tourist map, but life changing creative work is being done at Texas’ Fort Hood through “Creative Forces”, the NEA Military Healing Arts Network, which serves the special needs of military patients and veterans with traumatic brain injury and psychological health conditions, as well as their families and caregivers.

- Austin Classical Guitar is the leading nonprofit arts organization dedicated to classical guitar in the U.S. With international reach through its extensive guitar curriculum and education services, including programs in juvenile justice systems and lifelong learning for Braille readers, ACG serves as a model for other communities around the world aiming to inspire all of the people it serves with musical experiences of deep personal significance.

- Texas Folklife is a statewide non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and presenting the diverse cultures and living heritage of the Lone Star State. Texas Folklife responded to the impact of the pandemic by initiating an Artist Relief Fund and adapting treasured programs to online platforms. These programs include Exhibitions, Apprenticeships in the Folk & Traditional Arts, the Big Squeeze Youth Accordion Competition, Stories from Deep in the Heart, Stories for Creative Forces, and the annual Accordion Kings & Queens concert at Houston’s Miller Outdoor Theatre.

THE TEXAS COMMISSION ON THE ARTS

“...The Texas Commission on the Arts’ Cultural District program has seen steady growth since its inception, as municipal, arts, community and business leaders recognize the Districts’ value. Not only do Cultural Districts add to the quality of life for residents, but they serve as a beacon for tourism, help revitalize communities, attract businesses, and generate significant economic impact. As we navigate through the pandemic, Cultural Districts have proven to be community anchors sparked and sustained by the arts.”

– Ann S. Graham, Executive Director, Texans for the Arts
