ArtsVote - Make Your Vote Count

2022 marks a midterm election year, which means all 435 U.S. House of Representatives, 6 Delegates, and one-third of the U.S. Senate are running for election on Tuesday, November 8, 2022. There will likely be state and local elections taking place that day as well.

I encourage you to be an ArtsVote champion by pledging to make your vote count and encouraging others to turn out to vote. ### About the 2022 Congressional Arts Report Card

The Arts Action Fund PAC's 2022 Congressional Arts Report Card is an analysis and scorecard of how current incumbent Congressional candidates took pro-arts actions over the last two years. This document serves as your one-stop review of pro-arts actions taken or not taken by incumbents before you cast your vote at the ballot box. We evaluated 14 legislative arts indicators in the House and 10 indicators in the Senate. These arts indicators range from Co-Sponsoring important arts policy legislation to signing on to "Dear Colleague" letters with their peers in the House and the Senate to show group support for the arts. Those Members who co-sponsored the Save Our Stages legislation, signed on to a Dear Colleague letter to increase funding for NEA/NEH, or earned extra credit for phenomenal leadership either behind the scenes or publicly, were awarded an automatic thumbs up 👍 on our Report Card. Members of Congress also earned a thumbs up 👍 if they participated in any two of the other arts indicators with a pro-arts position, as represented by a filled-in dot ●.

The Arts Have Strong Bipartisan Support in Congress

While the COVID-19 pandemic wreaked havoc on families, businesses, and the entire world, it was also an opportunity to see our legislators come together on a bipartisan level to prevent the infrastructure for the arts from crumbling in this country. Unprecedented legislation was passed to support creative gig workers, entrepreneurs, and nonprofit arts organizations with billions of dollars in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC), Paycheck Protection Program (PPP forgivable loans), COVID Emergency Disaster Loans (EIDL) and Advances, additional grant-making funds for the National Endowments for the Arts (NEA) and Humanities (NEH), and Small Business Administration grants for Shuttered Venue Operator Grants (SVOG aka Save Our Stages). The numbers speak for themselves: 253 House members (57%) received a Thumbs Up and 71 Senate members (71%) received a thumbs up 👍 in our Congressional Arts Report Card this year. We are grateful to the many Republicans and Democrats, who partnered together to spearhead groundbreaking arts legislation, like Senators John Cornyn (R-TX) and Amy Klobuchar (D-MN) and Representatives Peter Welch (D-VT) and Roger Williams (R-TX), as well as congressional leaders Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi (D-CA) and Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-NY).

The Congressional Arts Report Card 2022 is paid for by the Americans for the Arts Action Fund PAC and is not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee. www.ArtsActionFund.org/ReportCard

Americans for the Arts Action Fund PAC is the only national bipartisan political action committee dedicated to supporting pro-arts federal candidates in the elections. This direct support to pro-arts candidates from PAC contributions is one of the most effective ways to help shape public policy. Members of Congress know that the types of PACs connected to membership organizations, like ours, represent an activist voting constituency as well.

By contributing to the Arts Action Fund PAC, you will send a message to candidates that arts advocates will support elected leaders who will stand up for equitable public policies to provide individuals and families affordable access to all forms of the arts and every child's right to a comprehensive, high quality arts education. Your contribution will also help us more effectively rally national support against attacks to the arts, as well as build the necessary influence to ensure bipartisan support for the arts. You can contribute to the Arts Action Fund PAC online at ArtsActionFund.org/formassembly/fa\_form/120.
