THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE

- Recognizing the creative sector as an asset in economic development and community-building, the Commonwealth has established 45 cultural districts. The destinations below represent only a few of the Commonwealth's cultural offerings.

- In western Massachusetts, see the famous illustrations of the Norman Rockwell Museum in Stockbridge, which is near many art galleries in Adams, Pittsfield, and Barrington. Novelist Edith Wharton’s former estate and lovely gardens are worth a visit in nearby Lenox. The Barrington State Company produces first-rate musicals in Pittsfield. And the Berkshires also has the Berkshire Opera Festival, the Berkshire Playwrights Lab, the Berkshire Theater Group, Jacob’s Pillow Dance Festival, and Tanglewood’s amazing schedule of popular and classical music.

- Head east to Northampton, where its Paradise City Cultural District offers performance venues, museums, galleries, and shops. Visit the Emily Dickinson Museum in nearby Amherst, along with the Mead Art Museum, and the UMass Fine Arts Center.

- Springfield is the birthplace of basketball and beloved children's author Dr. Seuss. It is also the home to the Dr. Seuss National Memorial Sculpture Garden, Springfield Symphony Orchestra, CityStage, and the Community Music School.

- The Worcester Art Museum's collection span 51 centuries of Art. The town has many colorful murals, the Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts, and the Worcester County Light Opera Company.

- In the heart of the Boston neighborhood, Roxbury, Hibernian Hall offers year-round programming that reflects the cultural heritage of the neighborhood.

- ICA's Watershed in East Boston is a seasonal exhibit space for contemporary art. During the pandemic, it became a food distribution site to address a direct need in the community. A national model of creative youth development, Artists for Humanity employs teens to make art for business clients. On Boston's famed Avenue of the Arts, Symphony Hall is the venue for America’s favorite orchestra, the Boston Symphony.

- To the southeast, in New Bedford, the town's namesake Symphony Orchestra is one of the oldest regional orchestras in the U.S. The former whaling center has a whaling museum, of course, and many art galleries, the Zeiterion Performing Arts Center, and Your Theater, Inc., a community theater group.
