In FY 2019-20, Nevada Arts Council also received $710,700 in federal NEA funds, which the Council re-granted to dozens of cultural organizations throughout the state. Another 15 nonprofit arts organizations received direct grants from the NEA totaling $320,000.

IN THE SILVER STATE, THE ARTS UNITE US

Poetry Out Loud begins in communities throughout the state as high school-aged students in public, private, charter, home and virtual schools master public speaking skills, build self-confidence and learn about their literary heritage through the memorization of classic and contemporary poetry.

THE NEVADA ARTS COUNCIL—Founded in 1967, the mission of the Nevada Arts Council (NAC) is to enrich the cultural life of the state through leadership that preserves, supports, strengthens, and makes excellence in the arts accessible to all Nevadans. The NAC serves a Nevada in which the arts enrich the lives of all residents, enhance the livability of communities, and contribute to the state’s economic revitalization. > Learn more here.

NEVADA ARTS FACTS

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- Start in Reno for A.V.A. Ballet Theater, the Nevada Museum of Art, the Cordillera International Film Festival, the Pioneer Center for the Performing Arts, and Artown, a month-long summer festival that brings in the best performers for 500 events in venues throughout the city.
- Northeast of Reno is the Black Rock Desert, the site of the Burning Man Festival, the famous experiment in community building, artistic self-expression, and gift-giving.
- East of the desert is Elko, proud of its cowboy heritage. The town is home to the state’s oldest rodeo, the National Cowboy Poetry Gathering, and the National Basque Festival, which features traditional Basque music, food, arts, and crafts.
- Head south of Reno to Carson City for the Wild Horse Children’s Theater, the Jazz & Beyond Music Festival, the Brewery Arts Center for art galleries, concerts, classic movies, and classes in painting, photography, and pottery.
- In Genoa, don’t miss the Geno Candy Dance Faire for its 300 artists and 4,000 pounds of homemade candy!
- Then head to Las Vegas for the Contemporary Arts Center, the Bellagio Gallery of Fine Arts, and the Smith Center for the Performing Arts. In September, don’t miss the Harvest Festival, with tens of thousands handmade art and crafts, all-day entertainment, and a kids’ activity center.
